DEPARTMENT ORDER 6
SERIES 2013-2014

January 28, 2013

LETTER TO THE BROTHERS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF KANSAS

Brothers of the Department,

I write today to thank you for the privilege and honor you have given me by my election to lead you as Department Commander. It is humbling to think men of your stature would entrust me with such a responsibility and I commit, with God's help, to do my best to serve you and the cause of our beloved Boys in Blue.

It was truly an honor to meet our Commander in Chief Perley Mellor, and his wife, ASUVCW National Vice President Diane Mellor. We not only enjoyed the day but dinner with them as well. The weather even cooperated and gave us a bit of snow to remind all of us it is still winter in Kansas.

I believe the challenge before not only our department and individual camps, but nationally as well, is to engage the youth of our Nation in not only understanding the causes of the Civil War and the sacrifices that were made, but actively participating in our camps to honor our dead and continue to perpetuate their memory. I hope to make that emphasis a hallmark of my term in office. As much as we enjoy the camaraderie and encouragement of our meetings, the work of remembering and sustaining our cause has to take place outside of the Perkins Restaurant, Bass Pro Shop, Watkins Museum, and DAV hall. It must move pro-actively into the youth of our culture.

To that end, our department Vision Committee will be meeting soon to discuss that, and other items, that will energize our department to excellence in our cause. The members of the committee are brothers Mike Hadl of Lawrence, Mark Britton of Wichita, and Nick Burchett of Topeka (See Department Order No. 5). If you have ideas please do forward them to myself directly, to these brothers, or through your camp chain of command.

As we prepare for this year, can I ask you to do two things? Think of ways to engage the youth of our state in our cause and look for a young man you can take under your wing. He might be a son, grandson, neighbor or in some other area of your circle of influence. Invite him along, encourage him, give him a ride, and even buy him dinner! Your investment will be of inestimable value to him and your camp but even more to our cause in making sure that those who sacrificed so much WILL not be forgotten on our watch-and in many years to come.

Once again, let me say how much I'm looking forward to leading and serving alongside you this year. Let us not forget that the SUVCW is more than a social club – it is a bond of men in whose blood flows the blood of past heroes and who desire to make sure they're not forgotten.

IN FRATERNITY, CHARITY, AND LOYALTY,

Rocky L. Bartlow, PCC
Department Commander

DEPARTMENT ORDER 7
SERIES 2013-2014

April 17, 2013

FIREARMS SAFETY AT SUVCW ACTIVITIES

Brothers of the Department,

1. Purpose: As we begin our activities for this year I'm issuing this directive to make sure we ensure the safety of the brothers and those around us as we are out in public. Frequently, as part of our activities, we have weapons including firearms of various types. Let us ensure we handle them wisely by complying with the following:
2. Ordered: Whenever brothers of the Department of Kansas represent the SUVCW, whether the Department, a Camp, or individually, they shall conduct the activity safely by appointing a Safety Officer from among the brothers. The highest ranking officer present at the start of the event shall make the appointment. The Safety Officer's duties shall be:
 - To ensure the general safety of brothers and the general public by inspecting the environs and doing what is necessary to prevent injury. This shall include searching for things that might cause trips, falls, or overhead hazards and display items that could cause injury.
 - Ensuring all firearms are unloaded and ammunition and primers are separated so firearms cannot be loaded while on display.
 - Ensuring that those entering any area under SUVCW influence unload any loaded firearm and do not load it until they exit same area.
 - Removing items or persons out of conformance from the SUVCW area until such time they are in conformance. Should that not be possible, the Safety Officer has the authority to close the SUVCW portion of the event until such time that there is conformance.
3. Any brother acting as a re-enactor jointly with a SUVCW event shall comply with the above while in an area represented by the SUVCW. When he departs from same he would fall under the safety procedures of the re-enactment group of which he participates.
4. If a brother is the only member at a SUVCW represented event, he shall consider himself the appointed Safety Officer and ensure the above rules are followed.
5. It is the intent of this directive that brothers of the Department of Kansas represent our order in a way consistent with our high calling. Ensuring the safety of our brothers and the general public is paramount.

So ordered this 17th day of April, 2013.

IN FRATERNITY, CHARITY, AND LOYALTY,

Rocky L. Bartlow, PCC
Department Commander
